

AlliedResearch
INTERNATIONAL

A Company of  Cetero
Research

Latest News

Allied Research International (ARI) has been short listed as one of 5 organizations for the "Best CRO" by Scrip Awards

Toronto, ON, Canada (September 15, 2006) -- Allied Research International (ARI) has been short listed as one of 5 organizations for the "Best CRO" by Scrip Awards. The prestigious award is presented by this British publication and the winner will be chosen from the 5 organizations short-listed, the award will be presented at a reception in London (UK) in November.

As per Dr. Piyush Patel, CEO and Principal Scientist: "ARI is thrilled to have been selected on the shortlist. This is a great honor which confirms our outstanding reputation as a quality CRO and puts us in the top tier of the CROs out there. Many thanks to our staff for the continuing dedication to quality and thoroughness of the work that has got us here. As well, many thanks to our business partners and sponsors who have provided us with opportunities to assist with their critical drug development."

For more information about Scrip Awards 2006, please visit
<http://www.pjbpubs.com/cms.asp?pageid=2421>

About Allied Research International

Allied Research International (ARI) is a member of the Cetero Research Family, the leading provider of early clinical, bioanalytical and niche late stage research services. ARI is a full service CRO specializing in early and late stage clinical trial conduct and management. Our Toronto, Canada and Miami, USA campuses have a combined 213-bed capacity for Phase I/IIa studies, and are ideal sites for Phase II-IV clinical trials. ARI is a leader in allergy and respiratory research with our focused therapeutic experience and unique models developed in our own Environmental Exposure Chambers.

For more information about Allied Research International, please contact John Capicchioni (john.capicchioni@cetero.com) (201-818-9346).